Cosmos Holdings appoints top portfolio manager to advisory board

Cosmos Holdings Inc (OTCQB: COSM) announced Friday that portfolio manager Tom Kolefas has been tapped to serve on its advisory board.

Kolefas joins the international pharmaceutical company after more than 25 years spent on Wall Street's buy-side where he managed both mutual funds and institutional equities at TIAA Investments, Jennison Associates, Loomis Sayles, Mackay-Shields and Bank of New York.

Kolefas also boasts considerable industry experience as a chemical engineer and corporate development officer at Engelhard/BASF.

"Tom Kolefas brings a wealth of expertise to our company," said Grigorios Siokas, CEO of Cosmos in a statement. "He has a track record for success in identifying value within the mid-cap space. We look forward to his contribution as we position ourselves for continued growth."

For his part, Kolefas is eager to come on board at Cosmos and advance its business efforts.
