FairFX off to a strong start in 2019 after transformational 2018

Shares in e-banking and international payments group FairFX Group Plc (LON:FFX) surged as the group said first-quarter revenue growth was ahead of expectations.

Group turnover, which represents money passing through the FairFX platform, rose by a third in the first quarter of 2019 to £620.5mln from £467.2mln in the same period of 2018.

From this turnover, FairFX derived revenue of £7.0mln, up 43% from the £4.9mln recorded for the first quarter of last year and ahead of the board's expectations.

The strong first-quarter update was the icing on the cake in the announcement of the company's full-year results for 2018.

Group turnover in 2018 was in excess of £2.3bn, up 111% from £1.1bn the year before, boosted by the acquisition of the City Forex business in February 2018; even so, like-for-like (LFL) growth was 55%.

Revenue rose 69%, or 39% on a LFL basis, to £26.1mln from £15.5mln the previous year.

Reported profit before tax soared to £2.08mln from £229,449 in 2017. Adjusted profit before tax, which seeks to strip out one-off costs and amortisation of acquisition intangibles, shot up to £6.79mln from around £900,000.

Lower cash position

The group's cash position at year-end was £7.9mln, down from £17.8mln (re-stated from £52.0 million by no longer recognising cash held on behalf of customers) at the end of 2017.

The decline in cash reserves was primarily because of the £6mln paid for City Forex but also reflected an increase in capital expenditure and an increase in collateral requirements with financial institutions in the supply chain to £1.6 million (2017: £0.9 million).

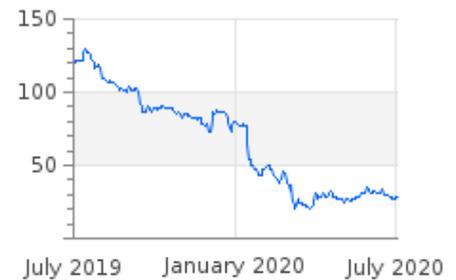

"2018 was a transformational year in the evolution of the group. We continued our strong growth, both organic and via acquisition, and combined this with significant investment in our people and technology to lay the foundations for our ongoing expansion. The addition of the City Forex business in February provided both an increase in revenues and a payments platform that combines a full front-to-back process which is now yielding efficiencies and capacity across the whole group," said Ian Strafford-Taylor, the chief executive officer of FairFX.

"The group has enjoyed a strong start to 2019, with the first quarter delivering a further jump in turnover along with improved margins helped by supply chain rationalisation and improved commercial terms. The investments in
