BigDish looking tasty as platform goes live in Exeter and Basingstoke

Investors tucked into the shares of BigDish PLC (LON:DISH) on Wednesday after the group launched its platform in Exeter and Basingstoke and said it was aiming to expand into four more towns and cities by the end of May.

The firm, whose app and website aim to help restaurants fill spare capacity by offering discounts during quieter times, said it planned to have its platform live in Brighton, Swindon, Taunton and Winchester, adding that going forward it would also be setting its sights on the London commuter towns.
