Vault Intelligence set to earn $2.1 million through five-year StateCover Mutual contract extension

Vault Intelligence Ltd (ASX:VLT) has extended the contract with existing customer StateCover Mutual for an additional five years, generating a total contract value of about $2.1 million.

StateCover has committed funding for enhanced software services in FY20 to further enhance Vault Enterprise and Vault Solo solutions, addressing requirements in the local government vertical.

The total commitment for financial year 29 is $727,000 of which $324,000 is attributable to incremental CARR for quarter 4.

Vault chief operating officer and executive director David Rose said StateCover Mutual continued to be a great and valued customer of Vault and we are delighted to extend our partnership over the long term.

Rose said: "StateCover Mutual's additional investment in enhanced software services is a testament to the strength of our relationship, the Vault team and our product roadmap.

"We also applaud StateCover Mutual's leadership on making workplaces safer and their continuous drive to add value for NSW Councils."
