Alliance Pharma wants to do 'more of the same' after Novartis deal

John Dawson, CEO of Alliance Pharma (LON:APH), explains to Proactiveinvestors that the deal to acquire 100% of the obstetric drug Syntometrine from Swiss giant Novartis is consistent with the company's strategy of acquiring well-established products that have good, steady cash flow. John says that the deal adds extra volume, extra sales, extra margins and flows down to profit 'very nicely'. The deal also takes APH into new territories. The US$11.5m purchase price still leaves the company with access to £10m in funds from its bank to pay for future deals.
