Financial Orbit analyst sees opportunities for "savvy investors" this year

Chris Bailey, founder of market analysis company Financial Orbit, tells Proactive Investors he sees opportunities investors "for the balance of this year" despite tough macroeconomic conditions.

The first six weeks saw markets "fall off a cliff" he says, but adds that "savvy investors" have taken advantage of this, with some big returns in the second half of the first quarter.

Bailey adds that the main drivers for the year will be the impending BREXIT vote, whether the commodity prices can continue to rebound, and the outcome of the US general election.
