LithiumOre strategic partner 3PL Operating says Lake Livada deposit could hold up to 3 billion barrels of lithium

Vince Ramirez, CEO of 3PL Operating Inc, tells Proactive Investors the privately held lithium exploration company is working with LithiumOre (OTCQB: ORRP) to explore and develop lithium in Railroad Valley, Nevada.

Ramirez says the company shares a neighboring land stake with LithiumOre's claim at its Western Nevada Basin project, and says the "$10 billion dollar question" is the amount of lithium within the Railroad Valley brine deposit, known as Lake Livada, which he believes is 3 billion barrels.
