Capstone Turbine Corporation (NASDAQ:CPST) announced Friday that RSP Systems, the company's distributor for the New York metro region, signed a Factory Protection Plan with a Brooklyn hospital, using its signature microturbines. The long-term service contract covers 1.6 megawatts, and RSP Systems has now eclipsed an FPP attachment rate of 90% on about 24.6 MWs of microturbines installed in their exclusive distribution territory, the company said in a statement.

LiteLink Technologies Inc (CSE:LLT) (OTCMKTS:LLNKF) revealed Friday that it has signed its first US 1SHIFT Logistics customer, Bay Water Transportation, a fully licensed international logistics service provider headquartered in Houston, Texas. The Burnaby, British Columbia company's flagship software platform 1SHIFT Logistics, enables brokers, shippers, and carriers to track shipments and settle payments in real-time without having to micromanage individual drivers.

RNC Minerals (TSE:RNX) announced new production figures from its Beta Hunt mine that showed the miner increasing its monthly output during the second half of the year. In August, Toronto-based RNC produced 8,104 gold ounces from Beta Hunt, up from the 7,873 ounces reported in July. It is the second full calendar month of consolidated operations at Beta Hunt following the firm's earlier acquisition of the Higginsville Gold Operation (HGO), which it purchased in June to reduce milling costs.

DXI Energy Inc's (TSE:DXI) (OTCMKTS:DXIEF) board has unanimously approved a new strategic direction for the company, which will see it transition to a regional producer of methanol, a product used in the oil and gas industry. The plan is to convert its processing facility at Woodrush in British Columbia to allow scalable production, initially targeting a potential of 16,000 gallons of methanol per day beginning in August next year. Internal estimates show a potential 900% increase in net income from operations for DXI as market demand for methanol in the region is high.
