Full interview: Gevo CEO says the company has created clean, renewable diesel from high-octane fuel

Gevo Inc (NASDAQ:GEVO) CEO Patrick Gruber tells Proactive the Colorado-based company has developed a breakthrough process that converts a high-octane fuel called isobutanol into clean, renewable diesel which should spark high demand from the transportation and marine industries.

Gruber says the renewable diesel is expected to compete head-to-head on price with natural and petroleum-based equivalents, while reducing particulates and CO2 emissions.

Company Synopsis:

Gevo is a next generation "low-carbon" fuel company focused on the development and commercialization of renewable alternatives to petroleum-based products. Low-carbon fuels reduce the carbon intensity, or the level of greenhouse gas emissions, compared to standard fossil-based fuels across their lifecycle. The most common low-carbon fuels are renewable fuels.
