Nabis Holdings taps experienced accounting and finance executive as CFO

Nabis Holdings Inc (CSE:NAB) (OTCMKTS:NABIF), an investment company with interests across the cannabis sectors, bolstered its executive team Tuesday with the addition of accounting executive Nicole Rusaw as its chief financial officer.

Rusaw has spent more than 15 years working with pharmaceutical and biopharmaceutical companies trading on both the TSX and the NASDAQ, the company said in a statement. She brings experience in regulatory and compliance matters, mergers and acquisitions, strategic planning and equity financing.

"Nicole is a welcomed addition to the executive management team at Nabis," CEO Shay Shnet said. "Bringing extensive public company financial and leadership experience, her appointment will be instrumental in supporting the next phase of the company's strategic plan. We are thrilled to have her on board."

Rusaw is a Chartered Professional Accountant, and she earned a First-Class Honours Bachelor of Accounting Co-op Degree from Brock University. She stepped into the CFO role effective October 1.

"It is an exciting time to join the Nabis team as the company diligently builds the foundation of its business," Rusaw said. "It is clear to me that the company has a long future ahead and I am thrilled to be a part of the Nabis story."
