Nabis Holdings names wealth management and brand specialist as Vice President of Investor Relations

Nabis Holdings Inc (CSE:NAB) (OTCMKTS:NABIF) said wealth management and brand specialist Richard Dolan will be joining the company as vice-president of investor relations (IR).

"We are thrilled to welcome Richard to the Nabis team. He brings a unique perspective to the business with his extensive experience in wealth management as well as success as an influential author, coach and speaker. Richard will be incredibly valuable in spreading the Nabis message to the investment community," Shay Shnet, the CEO and director of Nabis, told investors.

Dolan has nearly three decades' experience in the wealth management realm and has a rich and successful history among financial planners, investment advisors and private wealth managers, said cannabis industry investment group Nabis.

He is the author of several publications on the subject of money, wealth and worth - leveraging his background in research areas such as behavioral finance, happiness economics, and investor resilience.

He has worked with global banking brands including ING, Scotiabank, HSBC and Societe Generalé.

He has also worked with iconic consumer brands such as Pagani Automobili, BMW, Bentley Motors, Chanel, GQ Magazine, Dragons' Den, Rémy Martin and Virginia Black Whiskey.

Dolan added: "Nabis has done an excellent job laying the framework for a leading cannabis company of vertically integrated multi-state investments. I look forward to joining the team so that I can be part of the Nabis story, sharing the Company message and focusing on the creation of long-term shareholder value."
