Full interview: Arecor completes dosing in its Phase I clinical trial and secures key partnership

Arecor's Sarah Howell tells Proactive London's Andrew Scott they've now completed dosing and patient visits in the Austria-based phase I study of its ultra-rapid acting insulin candidate, AT247, with results expected by the end of the year.

They've also signed a research, development and commercialisation deal with JDRF - the world's leading type 1 diabetes research charity.
