Haydale Graphene appoints new chief financial officer

Haydale Graphene Industries PLC (LON:HAYD) has appointed Mark Chapman as its new chief financial officer, starting immediately.

The graphene materials developer said Chapman has been chief financial officer and chief operating officer at companies in the med-tech, beverages and consumer sectors for two decades, contributing to "strong" improvements in business sustainability and earnings growth.

Chapman is replacing Laura Redman-Thomas, who resigned from the company to take up a new role as announced last month.

"I'm pleased Mark is joining the team," said chief executive Keith Broadbent in a release.

"His experience is very well suited to Haydale's current stage of development as we progress through the commercialisation journey."
